

GUIDE FOR REFERENCE

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

UI Proceedings on Science and Technology is using IEEE citation reference with the citations that are numbered consecutively with numbers within brackets. IEEE Publications uses Webster's College Dictionary, 4th Edition. For guidance on grammar and usage not included in this manual, please consult The Chicago Manual of Style, published by the University of Chicago Press. Footnotes or other words and phrases that are not part of the reference format do not belong on the reference list.

The followings are the formats and examples of the references:

References

NOTE: When referencing, use et al. when three or more names are given.

References in Text

When references are cited, they appear on the line, in square brackets, inside the punctuation. Take a look at the example below;

As shown by Brown [4], [5]; as mentioned earlier [2], [4]–[7], [9]; Smith [4] and Brown and Jones [5]; Wood et al. [7]

NOTE: Use et al. when three or more names are given.

Or as nouns:

As demonstrated in [3]; according to [4] and [6]–[9].

References within a Reference

Check the reference list for ibid. or op. cit. These refer to a previous reference and reference section. In text, repeat the earlier reference number and renumber the reference ibid. gives a new page number, or other information, use the following forms:

[3, Th. 1]; [3, Lemma 2]; [3, pp. 5-10]; [3, eq. (2)]; [3, Fig. 1]; [3, Appendix I]; [3, Sec. 4.5]; [3, Ch. 2, pp. 5-10]; [3, Algorithm 5].

NOTE: Editing of references may entail careful renumbering of references, as well as the citations in text.

Style

In all references, the given name of the author or editor is abbreviated to the initial only and precedes the last name. Use commas around Jr., Sr., and III in names. If there are many names, use et al. Do not combine one reference with each number. If there is a URL included with the print reference, it can be included at the end of reference.

When the words below appear in the reference, abbreviate to:
